
Boston thanks town for help with Memorial Day

Editor:

A very heartfelt thank-you to everyone who participated in the town of Boston's 2015 Memorial Day Parade and Celebration.

The master of ceremonies was Supervisor Martin A. Ballowe. Speakers included Erie County Clerk Christopher Jacobs and James McCarthy, senior vice-commander of VFW Post 2556. The invocation and benediction was given by Pastor Dave Shoobridge of Faith United Church of Christ. Thank you all for the wonderful words spoken and taking time out of your busy schedules to be a part of our celebration.

Thank you to Trooper John Clark of the New York

State Troopers for leading our parade. Thank you to the Battery Post for their golf cart donation for the second year, once again allowing some of our senior veterans to participate in this year's parade.

Thank you to the Boston Color Guard, Boston Emergency Squad, North Boston, Patchin and Boston Fire Departments for their participation and traffic control. I would also like to thank Herbert Klein and the Boston Town Band for their outstanding performance. Thank you to Cub Scout Pack No. 391, Girl Scout Troop No. 31364 and Boy Scout Troop No. 491 for their participation.

On a personal note, I would like to thank Guy Blodget, for his assistance in contacting some of our groups and gathering information for our program. Thank you to those who provided names of soldiers present or former to be recognized at our celebration. This celebration is to honor ALL of our veterans. The absence of names and/or recognition does not minimize the appreciation we, as a town, have for our current and former serving veterans.

Again and always, thanks for making this year's parade a success!
